When a district employee knows, or reasonably should know, that such discriminatory harassment is occurring or has occurred, the district will take prompt and effective steps reasonably calculated to end the harassment, prevent its occurrence, and remedy its effects.

The district's nondiscrimination statement will be included in all written announcements, notices, recruitment materials, employment applications, and other publications made available to all students, parents, or employees. The statement will include: 1) notice that the district does not discriminate in any programs or activities on the basis of any of the above-listed categories; 2) the name and contact information of the district’s compliance officer designated to ensure compliance with this policy; and 3) the names and contact information of the district’s Section 504 and Title IX compliance officers.

The superintendent shall publish annual notice and complaint procedures to inform students, parents/guardians, and employees as required by law to ensure that there is in fact equal opportunity for all students in the district in a language they can understand.

The district will designate a staff member to serve as the compliance officer for this policy. The compliance officer or designee will be responsible for investigating any discrimination complaints communicated to the district.
